Probe my performance, Garcia dares critics

By Orlando A. Bana, Cebu City
Bana and Gloria Bana

MANILA (AP)—President Fidel V. Ramos' call for a "probe" of his performance as president has been met with a mix of reactions. Some critics have welcomed the move, while others have expressed skepticism.

Ramos, who took office in June 1992, has faced numerous challenges, including a controversial peace agreement with the Communist Party of the Philippines (CPP) and the New People's Army (NPA).

In a recent speech, Ramos said he was open to criticism and would welcome a "probe" of his performance. He said he was not afraid of being judged and would accept the results of any evaluation.

Some critics have welcomed the move, saying it was a sign of Ramos' confidence and openness. They said it was a good idea to have a "probe" of his performance.

Others, however, have expressed skepticism. They said that a "probe" of Ramos' performance was unnecessary and that he was already doing a good job.

Early reaction

Some critics have welcomed the move, saying it was a sign of Ramos' confidence and openness. They said it was a good idea to have a "probe" of his performance.

Others, however, have expressed skepticism. They said that a "probe" of Ramos' performance was unnecessary and that he was already doing a good job.

But, the 1994 poll results showed that Ramos was popular among the people.

Time, fund lack blamed for erroneous textbooks

By Benhur Luy

MANILA (Inquirer.net) — The Department of Education (DepEd) has blamed the lack of time and funds for the errors found in the new textbooks.

DepEd officials said that the textbooks were rushed into print due to the tight deadline for the start of the school year.

The department also said that the textbooks were not properly reviewed before being printed.

The textbooks were found to contain errors in grammar, spelling, and content.

The department has promised to correct the errors as soon as possible.

Illegal recruiters victimize 13 nurses

By TJ Sturgis

DON'T deal with illegal recruiters.

This was the warning aired yesterday by Acting Foreign Secretary Jose Brillantes to Filipino nurses wanting to land jobs in Jordan.

Brillantes said that 13 nurses who managed to gain employment in hospitals in Jordan with the aid of illegal recruiters faced a slew of problems such as arbitrary dismissal and illegal pay deductions.

The 13 nurses were hired by the Arab Medical Center in Amman through the firm Screen Management Inc., which did not protect their employment contracts with the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration.

Shortly after starting their jobs, the nurses reported to the Philippine Embassy in Amman, complaining that two of them had been arbitrarily dismissed and their employers had made illegal deductions from their salaries.

"In light of the nature of the hospital and the uncertain status of the Filipino nurses in Jordan, six of the 13 Filipino nurses are now requesting to be repatriated to the Philippines," Brillantes said in a statement.

The nurses, he said, were apprehensive over their future, particularly the issuance of their visas, the residency and working permit issued by the labor department.

of Arab centers in the region workers.

Brillantes also reminded nurses that only graduates of such universities in the Philippines accredited by the Jordanian Ministry of Higher Education were allowed to work in the kingdom.

Electronics firms hike sales of scrap material

By Thomas H. Bruneau

NEW YORK — Electronics firms are increasing their sales of scrap material, a trend that is expected to continue through the end of the year. The increase in sales is due to a combination of factors, including a rise in the price of scrap material and a growing demand for it from manufacturers.

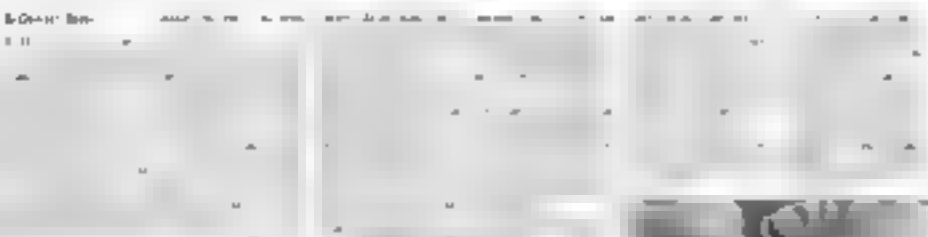

The deal, which is part of a larger plan to restructure the government's holdings, involves the exchange of shares in the firms for land owned by the government. The deal is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Stock surge seen

The stock market is expected to see a surge in the near future, as investors anticipate a recovery in the economy. This expectation is based on several factors, including a rise in corporate earnings and a strengthening of the dollar.

Fig. 2. Time course of the effect of the 100% oxygen breathing on the arterial oxygen saturation (SaO₂) in the patients with severe hypoxemia. The mean values of SaO₂ were plotted with the error bars representing the standard deviation. The oxygen breathing was started at 0 min. The SaO₂ increased rapidly and reached a plateau at 10 min after the start of the oxygen breathing. The plateau level was significantly higher than the baseline level (p < 0.05).

Rich mid-autumn harvest of art works

By David Karp

It's a golden harvest time for the arts community in the Bay Area. The mid-autumn season is a time of rich cultural activity, with many artists and organizations presenting new works and exhibitions.

One of the most exciting developments in the Bay Area art scene is the opening of the new gallery space at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA). This new space will provide a platform for contemporary artists and their work, and is expected to attract a large number of visitors. In addition, the San Francisco Symphony is presenting a series of new works by contemporary composers, and the San Francisco Opera is presenting a new production of Verdi's 'Aida'. These and other cultural events are sure to make the mid-autumn season a rich and rewarding one for the Bay Area community.
